Fee Protection

Protection for your client

The tax yield recovered by HM Revenue & Customs continues to increase with some 160,000 enquires commencing each year resulting in over £1 bn additional tax yield in 2006-07. Fee Protection Insurance is a service designed to cover professional fees incurred in dealing with HMRC enquires for your clients.

We have selected Peninsula Taxwise as our preferred partner for the provision of Fee Protection Insurance. They share our commitment to client service, have an excellent scope of cover including added value benefits which is supported by staff who have many years experience in Fee Protection.

Peninsula will agree the appropriate marketing programme which can be tailored to your individual requirements.
